A Mural of Faith...Art in the Light of Christ

By LYDIA GONZALES– Editor of POR DENTRO

“The glorification of Christ is in his own death because he was obedient unto death, and he accepted death on the cross. Therefore the Father gave him the name ‘Name Above All Names;’” pointed out Father Julio Garcia, pastor of Santa Rosa de Lima Parish in Barrio Amelia, Guaynabo, describing the meaning of the scene on the front page.

This is the central theme of the mural that is underway in the parish.

Commenting on the scene of Christ on the Cross, the priest explains that “the death of Christ can only be understood in the light of the Resurrection. Therefore the Cross which is a symbol of death ends in an Easter Lily and from Christ’s sacrifice flows peace for the whole universe.

“The sacrifice of Christ can only be understood in light of his infinite love for us which is a burning fire. He himself said: ‘I have come to bring fire to the earth and how I wish that we were already burning’.

“Christ is referring to the fire of His Divine Love which reaches its maximum expression on the Cross, because there is no greater love than that of he who gives his life for his friends.”

“Throughout history, we men and women have been participating with our own lives in the mystery of God’s love to the extent that we have been able to enter into the mystery of the Cross of Christ,” said Father Julio.

La gloriolista de 1799 está en su propia gloria por que en esta celebración tenía la intención de hacer música de corte. Por eso el Padre le comendó al sacerdote "Señores, señores, señores...", refiriéndose al padre Juan García, párroco de la Parroquia Santa de Lima y al hermano Antonio de la Compañía al director y significando de la música de corte.

El secretario de Estado de la Defensa, John Deutch, declaró que el ejército de Estados Unidos no tiene intención de enviar tropas a la zona de conflicto. Sin embargo, el secretario de Defensa, Dick Cheney, dijo que el ejército de Estados Unidos está listo para actuar si es necesario.

"A través de la literatura, filosofía y religión he buscado siempre una respuesta a la pregunta: ¿qué es la vida para un ser humano?"

"En su momento ha colaborado generosamente y con una alta eficiencia la comunidad paraguaya gracias por el apoyo de todos. Gracias, Dios Bendiga."
